

TransEurope Session I:
Employment and Retirement in a Globalizing Europe:
Disentangling the Issues

Saturday, July 18, 10.30-12.00 a.m., Room: 13 rue de l'Université / J-101

Moderator: Heike Schroeder (Middlesex University Business School)

Employment and Retirement in a Globalizing Europe – A Life Course Perspective

Dirk Hofaecker (State Institute for Family Research at Bamberg University),

Sandra Buchholz (University of Bamberg)

Labour Market Policies Towards Older Workers in Europe: A critical review

Cornelia Spross (Institute for Employment Research (IAB), Nuremberg)

Human Resource Management and its effects on labour market outcomes of older workers under divergent institutional conditions: Evidence from German and British panel data

Dirk Hofaecker (State Institute for Family Research at Bamberg University),

Heike Schroeder (Middlesex University Business School)

The employment situation of older workers and its economic consequences – A comparison of Denmark and Germany

Annika Jabsen (Institute for Family Research at the University of Bamberg),

Julia Marold (Institute for Family Research at the University of Bamberg)

From Youth-Centric to Age-Positive HRM: A Comparative Assessment of Germany, Japan and Britain

Michael Muller-Camen,

Matt Flynn,

Heike Schroeder (all Middlesex University Business School)

TransEurope Session II:
Globalization, Uncertainty and their Effects on Young Labour Market Entrants – Evidence from national case studies

Saturday, July 18, 1.30-3.00 p.m., Room: 13 rue de l'Université / J-208

Moderator: Dirk Hofaecker (State Institute for Family Research at Bamberg University)

Graduates' Conceptualizations and Expectations of Work-Life Balance in the UK

Uracha Chatrakul Na Ayudhya (Middlesex University Business School)

Could regional universities promote early entrance into the labour market and fight uncertainty?

Valentina Goglio (University of Turin - Department of Economics)

The heterogeneity of the impact of labour market flexibilization on the transition to the adult life in Italy

Sonia Bertolini (University of Turin)

TransEurope Session III:
Globalization, Uncertainty and their Effects on Young Labour Market
Entrants: Conceptual and International Perspectives

Saturday, July 18, 3.30-4.45 p.m., Room: 13 rue de l'Université / S-07
Moderator: Sonia Bertolini (University of Turin)

Structural uncertainty, employment insecurity and the early life course: Disentangling dimensions, relationships and empirical evidence

Mieke Jansen (Interface Demography, Free University of Brussels)

Dirk Hofaecker (Researcher State Institute for Family Research at Bamberg University)

Inequality of Uncertainty and Life Planning in Europe

Marii Paskov (University of Groningen)

Labor market regulation and perceived job insecurities in the early career. Do Danish employees worry less?

Ellen Ebralidze (University of Bamberg)

Multiple Deprivations and the Subjective Experience of Social Exclusion of Young State Benefit Recipients in Germany

Brigitte Schels (Institute for Employment Research (IAB), Nuremberg),

Sandra Popp (Institute for Employment Research (IAB), Nuremberg)